What is Digital Radio?

Digital radio brings more programme choice with improved sound quality.

More Choice

With 11 national channels from the BBC plus 7 national commercial stations and a whole raft of local stations broadcasting across the country the average listener can tune into at least 30 digital radio channels.

D.A.B. Digital Radio Text

More news, more information via your D.A.B. radio's screen!

What is PAUSEplus?

How many times has your favourite radio station been interrupted by that phone call from a double glazing firm or someone selling that must have item? Sound familiar?

Now with a single press of the PAUSEplus button you can put your favourite station on hold while you answer that important call. After the interruption simply press the PAUSEplus button to return to your favourite station exactly where you left it. So you never miss a single word! Radio stations can effectively be put on hold for typically 20 minutes but can be up to 40 minutes depending on the station you are listening to.

Rewind

Have you ever missed an important news item or telephone number or the title of a piece of music? With a double press of the PAUSEplus button you can quickly retrieve what you missed!
